NORMAN McLEOD LAID TO REST.

Services Conducted in the First Presbyterian Church Parsonage.

The appalling and relentless force of the thought that "Death hath a thought down to let out life" has never appeared more insistently to the deep-seated feeling in this community than recently under the many serious afflictions it has suffered.

Yesterday the beautiful new home of the pastor of the First Presbyterian church received a dedication of tears as over the threshold was borne the only son after his brief home coming.

The boyish face lay smiling from the encircling bosom of flowers, not as if this was a last unending holiday when the parting meant more than one heart break, as the hopes of years must be hidden away beneath the casket lid.

The funeral services of Norman McLeod opened with Scriptural reading by Rev. Dr. S. C. Logan. Rev. Dr. Robinson followed with remarks of sympathy and hopes that reached beyond the grave. He spoke with tender emotion of the great promise which the beautiful life gave for the future.

Rev. Dr. Hodges of Wilkes-Barre made the closing prayer and pronounced the benediction. A touching incident of the services was the quartette "There is a Happy Land," sung by classmates Messrs. Harold Watres, Harry Lathrop, George H. Dickson and Everett Crawford. The first church choir, George H. Downing, Edwin Bowen, Miss Florence Richmond, Miss Lily Joseph, sang "And I Heard a Voice Say," and "Jesus Thou Art Standing."

The pallbearers were classmates at Princeton, Messrs. James R. Dickson, Frank I. Linen, Harold Watres, Harry Lathrop, of this city; Franklin W. Fort, of East Orange, N. J.; Everett Crawford, of New York. Other Princeton men present were Messrs. George Lathrop, of Scranton; O. F. Gardner, of Sheldon, Ia.; H. H. Brady, of California. Interment was made in Dunmore cemetery.

Brief services were held at the Princeton infirmary previous to the departure of the family with the remains for this city. These were conducted by President Pratt and were attended only by the immediate family and closest friends. All the friends waited outside and escorted the little procession to the station in the early morning.

After submitting the resolutions by the class of the deceased, it was decided that representatives would wear crepe on the arm during the thirty days following the death of their much loved classmate.

NEW TELEPHONE RULES.

They Went Into Effect Yesterday at the Exchange in This City.

The following new rules of the Central Pennsylvania Telephone company went into effect at the Scranton exchange yesterday:

Operators are not allowed to give connections without the number.

To call the exchange give one ring and take the telephone off the hook and place it to your ear; don't wait for return ring, the operator will answer you inquiring "what number?"

Give number distinctly when answered.

After giving your call party asked for answers, or the operator reports that they cannot be found.

Answer your call promptly, as operators are not allowed to ring more than three times for any subscriber.

When the exchange calls you, don't ring back but take the telephone off the hook and answer by voice, "who wants?" giving your name.

Members of social subscribers will please give their number as well as the number of the party wanted when giving call.

Never fail to ring off when through talking, otherwise your line might be reported busy when it is not.

A report of "busy" does not necessarily mean that the subscriber asked for is personally busy, but that the line wanted is connected to another party.

Every connection makes two busy lines.

When you want more than one party, give exchange sufficient time to disconnect after you have rung off, before calling again.

When they are two or more stations on your line listen to hear if any one is talking, before you call.

In talking, speak in moderate tone, directly into the transmitter with the lip as close as possible to the mouthpiece.

The use of the telephone is limited to the subscriber, his family or employe in his interest. Subscribers have not the right to allow its use by other parties. Instruments may be removed if this condition of use is violated.

All persons, whether subscribers or not, must pay for the use of telephone at Public Pay Stations.

Operators are required to be courteous in their dealings with subscribers, and we ask and expect courteous treatment for them as well.

Operators are forbidden to hold any conversation with a user of the telephone, other than that necessary to complete connections. Inquiries, complaints and special messages regarding service should be made to the Manager or Chief Operator.

COL. COURSEN IS HOME FROM CAMP

Here on Leave and Subject to Immediate Recall.

SAYS THE NON-VOLUNTEERS WILL REMAIN SOME DAYS AT MT. GRETNA AND THAT THE RECRUITING DETAIL WILL NOT BE HERE AT ONCE—DIVISION AND BRIGADE OFFICERS NOT CERTAIN AS TO THE IMMEDIATE PLANS FOR THE PENNSYLVANIA TROOPS.

Colonel H. A. Coursen, commander of the Thirtieth regiment, arrived home from Mt. Gretna last evening. He is here on a leave of absence subject to immediate recall. Mr. Coursen has not been well for some time. Her condition was made worse by the departure of her husband with the regiment, and though she has been better during the past day or so, her nervous state demanded Colonel Coursen's presence. He was not able to come until after yesterday morning's inspection and volunteering of his command.

Colonel Coursen came home via Harrisburg and reached here on the 3 o'clock Delaware Lackawanna and Western train. To a Tribune reporter he said:

"Just before leaving camp I talked with Adjutant General Steward and General Gobin in reference to the future plans for the Pennsylvania division. These two gentlemen could tell me nothing very definite. I ascertained, however, that those who declined to volunteer will not immediately return home, nor will details be sent back for recruits for several days, possibly not before next Tuesday. When told that 116 recruits had been unofficially enlisted for the regiment at large and approved by Dr. Fulton, and that Companies A, E, F, G and H had from 30 to 50 applications each, Colonel Coursen said:

"In addition to the recruits secured by several companies individually, I think we should obtain about 250 men for the regiment at large. We should have, say, 400 men all told to fill out our quota, as 25 per cent, of the recruits already in the ranks are likely to be rejected.

OFFICIAL RECRUITING.

"The official recruiting will be done at Mt. Gretna. Men taken from here will be furnished transportation to camp and back again if rejected. Before any recruiting is done extra barracks, tents, clothing and equipment must be furnished for hundreds of extra men. This cannot be accomplished in a minute; accommodations for the newcomers cannot possibly be provided before the last of next week. It is possible, however, that the recruiting detail will be here a day or so in advance of the time of leaving for camp."

"I, and all the officers of the regiment have been highly gratified by the spirit of our boys in camp. They are itching for service. Another source of gratification is the belief that many honorably discharged members of the regiment have signified their intention of re-enlisting. These men will naturally be given the preference. An instance—although I know the fact only from hearsay—is that of Captain Stokes, ex-commander of Company D. I understand he intends to join the company and is willing to serve in any capacity, though some rank to which he is entitled may be found for him."

Colonel Coursen remarked that the regiment had lost none of its gratitude for the gift of the ambulance, purchased with contributions made through the Tribune.

Colonel E. H. Ripple, commissary general, last evening returned to Scranton with a short leave of absence. He came on the same train with Colonel Coursen. Colonel Ripple was called here on urgent business. He will return to camp on an early train this morning.

THIRTEEN NEW RECRUITS.

Only one hour, between 5 and 6 o'clock p. m., was devoted to recruiting at the Thirtieth regiment army yesterday. Of a score who applied to Colonel Osthaus only three were approved by Dr. Fulton. Over 30 per cent of the applicants were rejected. A total of 116 have been approved to date.

Colonel Osthaus and Dr. Fulton will continue the recruiting today. They will be at the army from 5 to 6 o'clock.

Recruiting for Company H was begun in the North End yesterday in response to a request made by Captain Wells Corwin, of ex-Captain Eugene Corwin. The latter requested Special Officer Bohr to record the names of applicants.

Over 50 recruits, or more than twenty above the number suggested by Captain E. D. Fellows, have been secured by Attorney Walter Briggs for Company F. Several applications for membership in Company D have been made to ex-Captain W. A. May.

A. C. Monies, of Green Ridge, who recently applied for an appointment as plumber aboard the St. Paul on Monday received word to report at the Brooklyn navy yard at once. He left for Brooklyn Monday night.

SCRANTON RAILWAY WAR FUND.

Organized Last Night by the Employees of the Trolley Lines.

The employees of the Scranton Railway company held a meeting last night in the offices of the company and organized the Scranton Railway War Fund. The object of this fund is to care for the dependent ones of employes of the company who have or may after their services to the government during the war now in progress.

E. Moskait was chosen president, D. Herliker secretary, and Frank Stillman, jr. general manager of the company. The plan of the fund will be as follows: The employees of the company will have an opportunity of subscribing in any amount as they feel disposed to give to be paid in installments as needed. Two of the employes of the company are now with the Thirtieth regiment at Mt. Gretna and yesterday Uncle Sam sees fit to order them.

MANY CERTIORARI CASES.

They Came Up for a Hearing in Argument Court.

It took part of the time of court yesterday to hear argument in the cases on the list. The most of the cases were certiorari. The first was to strike off the penalty imposed by the city upon Sarah Dunleavy, of the North End, for maintaining an alleged nuisance in the shape of a chic-ten-coop. Mrs. Dunleavy was arrested without a warrant and was fined in the police court. Her attorney, J. J. Brennan & DeLoach, argued the fine should be remitted as it was not a case for summary conviction but for a jury in court. The case of E. B. Decker, assignee, against Thomas J. Morgan, was argued. Morgan bought a piano from Quernway Bros. and did not pay the full amount. He claimed that the piano was not what it was represented.

In the afternoon arguments were made on the exceptions to the report of Attorney M. J. Wilson, referee in the issue between A. Doan, trustee, and Joseph Church, deceased. Attorney H. M. Hannah appeared for Mr. Doan and Attorney S. B. Price for the defendant. The other cases are actions for divorce and the papers were submitted.

LOCATION OF BODIES NOT KNOWN.

But Slight Hope of Reaching the Men Entombed in Hillside Mine.

Although work is still going on in the Hillside mine as actively as ever, the officials who are in charge of the rescue have given up all hope of ever reaching the bodies of Thomas Williams and David Emanuel, who were entombed in that mine by a cave last Friday.

The search for the bodies is attended by a good deal of danger, but the principal drawback in prosecuting the work of recovery systematically is the fact that no one knows where the bodies are located. If that was definitely determined the work of moving toward the present grave of the unfortunates might be prosecuted with much better success.

SENSATIONAL LETTER.

Sent by Phoenix Company Withdrawing from Firemen's Relief Association—It Was Accepted.

Something of a sensation was created at last evening's meeting of the Firemen's Relief association by a letter received from Max Zisselman, the representative of the Phoenix Chemical company. He said he had been requested by the company to withdraw from the association for the reason that the ordinance under which the association is acting is defective and for the further reason that the company disputes the right of the association to levy a per capita assessment on companies in the association, maintaining that the expenses of the association should be defrayed from the state funds.

The members of the Phoenix company are also of the opinion that they can have claims from the company passed upon by councils and have their paid without the assistance of the association. The withdrawal of the company was accepted and a committee consisting of Andrew Holmes, Emil Bonn and Fred Warnke appointed to draft an amendment to the by-laws which will permit individual members of the association to join the association if they see fit to do so. This amendment will be reported at the next meeting on Wednesday, May 25. It will give the privileges of the association to every member of the department regardless of what their company may do.

The charter was approved by the trustees of the association and will be presented to court today by City Solicitor McGinley who is the attorney for the association. The resolution will begin business on June 1. The ordinance under which the association is operating is as follows:

Section 1.—Be it ordained by the select and common councils of the city of Scranton: That all such sums of money as may be received by the city treasurer in accordance with the act of assembly approved June 25, 1895, be and is hereby to be received for the benefit of the Firemen's Relief association.

Section 2.—That the city treasurer is hereby directed to enter such sums on the receipt thereof under a special account and to pay the said amounts annually to the city clerk who is hereby directed to issue a warrant therefor in favor of the treasurer of the Firemen's Relief association, and on report to him of the city treasurer.

Section 3.—That any ordinance or part of ordinance heretofore passed by the select and common councils of the city of Scranton of this nature and the same is hereby repealed so far as the same affects this ordinance.

DRUG CLERK KEALEY DEAD.

Was Seized With Brain Paralysis and Died in Three Hours.

John J. Kealey, a well known drug clerk, died suddenly at 1 o'clock yesterday morning. He had been sick only three hours. At 10 o'clock he retired to bed and a few minutes later an attack of brain paralysis seized him. He had not been in ill-health, but his constitution was not very rugged.

Mr. Kealey was employed at the Lackawanna drug store on the corner of Lackawanna and Franklin avenues. He formerly worked at Phelps' and at Humphrey's pharmacy on Pittston avenue. He was 25 years old. He lived at 1436 Providence road, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Kealey, of Mulberry street.

ENTERTAINMENT, REFRESHMENTS AND A DANCE IN THE ROOMS UNTIL RECENTLY OCCUPIED BY THE EXCELSIOR SOCIAL CLUB ON THE TOP FLOOR OF THE ECONOMY BUILDING—BUILDERS' EXCHANGE AND CENTRAL LABOR UNION DELEGATIONS PRESENT—MANY LADIES IN THE GATHERING.

The opening of the recently acquired lodge rooms of Carpenters' union, No. 563, in the Economy building on Wyoming avenue, was celebrated last night. The rooms are those on the top floor occupied until recently by the Excelsior Social club. A programme of music, recitations and addresses, refreshments and a period devoted to dancing filled out a well arranged evening of sociability.

A large throng of men and women participated in the affair. A general invitation to all the carpenters of the city and their families and members of the Builders' exchange and Central Labor union met with a flattering response. All these elements were well represented in the assemblage which occupied all the seats in the main hall.

J. S. Quick, chairman of the executive committee, presided during the opening exercises which lasted until 10:15 o'clock. The programme included the following: Remarks, E. D. Shopland, president of the union; address, Frank J. Johnson, of the Builders' exchange; address, Attorney J. Elliot Ross; remarks, M. D. Flaherty, president of the Central Labor union; piano solo, John Howell; vocal solo, Edwin James; recitation, Miss Anna Thomas; vocal solo, Edwin D. Bowen; recitation, Thomas J. McHugh; piano solo, D. V. Brini; vocal solo, Leyshon Evans, and recitation, Benjamin Griffith.

The refreshments were served immediately following the exercises and before the audience had arisen. Members of the union were the waiters. They were assisted in serving by Mrs. George Cooper, Mrs. Stephen G. Price, Mrs. D. P. Roberts, Mrs. Edwin Davis and Miss Margaret Roberts.

Music for the dancing which concluded the evening's programme was played by Joseph Howell, pianist.
